Burlesque Benefit

■ The Grand Exhibition, an international burlesque benefit by The Rouge Revue Burlesque Company, has raised more than R33 000 for Rape Crisis Cape Town Trust at its annual show, which took place on Saturday, September 27, at the District Six Homecoming Centre. This was the benefit's 10th anniversary show, which, since its inception in 2015, has raised just shy of R300 000 for the trust, aimed at supporting rape survivors and victims of sexual offences. Pictured are the group of dancers, including independent artists and soloists, who participated in The Grand Exhibition 2025.

Noordhoek Gardens open for a cause

Residents often spot the group's bright "We are on the verge today" sign on Wednesdays, when the small team is out planting, pruning or weeding along the roadsides.

According to Ms Fish, the Open Gardens event ensures the work can continue.

"It's heartwarming to see the younger generation play such an active role," she adds, pointing to the Scouts and Girl Guides who will once again be helping with entrances and ticket sales at the gardens.

"Their enthusiasm and community spirit remind us why this event matters; it's about coming together to create something bigger than ourselves."

Over the past decade, the event has become a Noordhoek tradition, attracting families, gar-
